December 26th, 2019 - APUSH Period 4 1800 to 1848 – The new republic struggled to define and extend democratic ideals in the face of rapid economic territorial and demographic changes. Key Concept 4.1: The United States began to develop a modern democracy and celebrated a new national culture while Americans sought to define the nation’s democratic ideals and change their society and institutions to match them.

Europeans developed a variety of colonization and migration patterns influenced by different imperial goals, cultures, and the varied North American environments where they settled. They competed with each other and American Indians for resources.
