Jesus Poured Out the Spirit — So What
June 6th, 2017 - Pentecostal and Charismatic groups have always thought so and have insisted. It is not always a bad thing when the church is changed by its experience of the Spirit at work in the world. In fact, it’s not as if you have to climb Mt. Everest in order to find the Spirit of Jesus. It’s more like opening a door to a knock.
It is necessary to discern which spirit is leading one ecstatic phenomena must be judged by their effect 1 Cor 12 2 1 Cor 12 3 illustrates this by an example power to confess Jesus as Lord can come only from the Spirit and it is inconceivable that the Spirit would move anyone to curse the Lord

This is a question that tore at the minds of the early church especially the Eastern Orthodox Granted this was a later period but it is helpful because we have the arguments and can follow the thinking What we see is acceptance of Jesus as the

His ministry is not forced by the gospels to conform to the later Church experience of urban settings Jesus was a charismatic personality whose authority created a strong impression and bitter opposition reinforced by his association with outcasts and pariahs Luke 15 2

For while we are in this tent we groan and are weighed down because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be further clothed so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life c 5 Now the one who has prepared us for this very thing is God d who has given us the Spirit as a first installment
