Shout at the Devil movie review 1976 Roger Ebert
November 10th, 1976 - Shout at the Devil is a big dumb silly movie that s impossible to dislike It s so cheerfully corny so willing to involve its heroes in every possible predicament that after awhile we relax. This is the kind of movie they used to make back when audiences were supposed to have the mentality of

Shout at the Devil by Wilbur Smith Goodreads
August 28th, 2006 - Shout at the Devil is my second Wilbur Smith read after Eagle in the Sky and an early outing for the author. Surprise, surprise it’s an expertly written action adventure yarn set in Africa in which the sights and sounds of the fetid boggy terrain are brought to life with sweeps of the great author’s pen.
